Art Classes For Children Slated Here

Moni Gillett, South Bay artist, will begin a series of art classes for boys and girls between the ages of 6 and 15 years who have displayed talent in this field.
Sponsored by the Torrance Art Group in cooperation with the Torrance Recreation Dept., these classes will begin on Saturday, March 2, from 1:30-3:30 p.m. in the Torrance Civic Auditorium and continue through April 20.

There is a registration fee of $5 for the entire series of eight lessons. Children between the ages of six and nine years will meet from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. and those 10 years and older will meet from 2:30-3:30 p.m. Applications now are available at the Torrance Recreation Dept., 3031 Torrance Blvd., or by calling FAirfax 8-4108. Enrollment is limited to a maximum of 20 students in each class.

Moni Gillett is a native of Australia. She has lived in the United States for 30 years and has her B.A. from the University of Tasmania in Australia.

She is a retired teacher from New York State, where she taught art in Westchester and Long Island public schools.
Her extensive art background includes a Master of Fine Arts degree from Columbia University, a Bach Fellowship in art research at Maitland, Fla., graduate work at Berkeley, U., and study with some of the finest artists in the contemporary field including Hans Hoffman, Ernest Thurn, and Vasil Vyatcl.
